READING : 20 marks

Q1. Read the given passage carefully (5 marks)

Leaked reports from a top secret agency indicate that Government scientists are planning for UK citizens to be replaced entirely by perfect robot replicas within the next 10 years.

According to a report in the sun, the leaked report says that the MIT (Ministry of Information Technology) will soon see the development and sale to the public of mechanical representations of humans called “surrogates”, which are operated through mind control. It says that the UK population will be cajoled by a huge public marketing campaign into purchasing their own “surrogate” and a special operating device- called a “stim chair”- that they attach themselves to in the safety of their own home.

The mind pattern impulses sent through diodes on the “stim chair” then activate the Individual “surrogates” who take to the streets to tackle the day-to-day grind of the individual. The startling technology logical advance will be billed to the UK as a necessary step in an increasingly violent and terrorist-threatened world. The white paper goes into incredible detail about creating a world where crime, pain and fear don’t exist because the British Public live a “utopian existence” with the “surrogates” taking all the risks.

Read the questions and write the option you consider the most appropriate in your answer sheet.

US President Barack Obama challenged the world on Tuesday to act swiftly to fight global warming but offered no new proposals that could jump start stalled talks on a UN climate pact.

Speaking shortly after Obama at a special UN summit on global warming. Chinese President Hu Jintao pledged to reduce the carbon intensity of his country's economic growth.

In his speech, President Obama said time was running out to address the problem. 'Our generation's response to this challenge will be judged by history, for if we fail to meet it _____boldly, swiftly and together_____ we risk consigning future generations to an irreversible catastrophe", he said

'The time we have to reverse this tide is running out.'

Activists hoped the United States and China would inject momentum, 2-1/9 months before 190 nations gather in Copenhagen aiming to complete a deal to slow climate change. "Failure to reach broad agreement in Copenhagen would be moral inexcusable economically short – sighted and politically unwise." Ban said.

Read the questions given below and write the option you consider the most appropriate in your answer sheet:

- i) Is a major contributor to global warming because of the economic growth?
- ii) has already contained the carbon intensity.
- iii) does not add to the problem of global warming.
- iv) Does not require to act in this direction.

c) According to the speakers

- v) There is no need to panic as there is sufficient time to act.
- vi) The situation has gone out of control.
- vii) There is an immediate need of swift action to slow down the climate changes.
- viii) The future generations will act swiftly.

d) According to the report:

- i) The countries should reach a definite agreement on the issue of global warming.

- ii) The countries still can negotiate and reach a definite agreement as the failure of the summit will not make any difference.
 - iii) It is important for the future generations to act now as it is their life which is at stake.
 - iv) Failure to reach any agreement will not affect the future generations.
- e) Which of the following words in the passage stands for 'stopped'?
- i) reversible

Read the following passage carefully.

It is now established that life existed in oceans at least 200 million years before oxygen appeared on Earth, a new study has revealed.

During this period in its history, known as Archaen, the Earth was covered by a poisons smog of Methane, Ammonia and other toxic gasses. So, life as we know it today, could not have survived on the early planet.

Now, an international team, led by Rutgers University in New Jersey, has claimed that plant like bacteria existed in the oceans for the hundreds of millions of years while the Earth's air was not fit to breathe.

The findings are based on analysis of ancient preserved seabed rocks from South Africa dating back some two to three billion years._____the study found chemical evidence of nitrogen cycles which could have taken place without the presence of free oxygen, The Daily telegraph reported.

Nitrogen cycles relate to the way living things obtain and use nitrogen to produce complex organic molecules. Evidence of nitrogen cycles provides a "finger print" of life.

According to the scientist's organisms which produced oxygen as a by-product of photosynthesis must have evolved by around 205 billion years ago. Oxygen did not begin to enrich the atmosphere until at least 200 million years later.

Read the questions below and write the option you consider the most appropriate in your answer sheet.

a) According to the report

- i) Life was possible without oxygen in ocean.

Read the poem carefully:

Rain On the Roof

When the humid shadows hover
Over all the starry spheres
And the melancholy darkness Gently weeps in rainy tears, What bliss to press the pillow Of a cottage-chamber bed And lie listening to the patter Of the soft rain overhead!
Every tinkle on the Shingles Has an echo in
the heart;
And a thousand dreamy fancies
Into busy being start;
And a thousand recollections Weave their air-threads into woof, As I listen to the patter
Of the rain upon the roof.

Now in memory comes my mother, As she used in years
agone,
To regard the darling dreaemeses
Ere she left them till the dawn;

O! I feel her fond look on me
As I list to this refrain which is played upon the shingles by the patter of the rain.

Read the questions below and write the most appropriate option : - a) The 'humid shadows' in the first stanza stands for –

- (i) The clouds
- (ii) the stars

- (ii) melancholy
- (iii) regret
- (iv) remorse

c) The soft patter of the rain on the roof

- (i) Makes the poet sad
- (ii) Floods his mind with the childhood memories.
- (iii) Brings cheerfulness as it reminds him of his mother.
- (iv) Frightens him

d) Complete the statement

The poet feels _____

- (i) as if his mother was fondly looking at him.
- (ii) as if he was lost in his childhood.
- (iii) That whenever it rains he is lost in reveries.
- (iv) as if the sky was weeping.

e) The 'melancholy darkness'

stands for i) The clouds covering the sky

- ii) The rain drops
- iii) The dark night
- iv) The state of depression
